

第009篇 [神仙故事中 ‘壞蛋’自白。]

命題大意： 用一西方普通神話故事為題材。

寫作大意： 藉用中國 <封神榜> 中紂王和妲己的神話加以引伸。

Assignment 5/15/2002.

[Choose a classic fairy tale, and rewrite it from the villain's point of view. In other words, if you were to select Little Red Riding Hood or The Three Little Pigs clothe into the skin of the Wolves and tell it from how you think the villain (wolf) felt. The 3 little pigs and Red Rid Hood were good guys but the wolf wanted to eat them in both stories. This might be hard for you, but give it a try.]

WRITING 5/22/2002

I am a mixture of a beast , a man, and even a fairy. Don't ask me why and how. You may imagine my being in such an incredible state because once upon a time, I saved a fairy to beat down another fairy in a duel in a way like the story of " last piece of straw put on a camel caused its death". That fairy won the duel and transformed me to such a state with a rewarding magic touch. Since I possess a mixed character traits of a beast , a humanbeing and a fairy, I naturally behalve with the features of the above three.

For example, I can change my shape and complexion against any specific human being I like and speak in his or her languages. As a fairy, I am immortal. When I am also a beast, I like to drink the blood and eat the meats of humans and/or animals, especially the the young ones .

There is a well known fairy story from ancient China regarding the last Ying dynasty (about 1000 bc). A femal fox fairy killed the fiancee of the king and transformed herself as a replacement. Eventually she became the queen who was very charming, but a villain caused the king to lose his throne. I have done things like this countless times in the past.

You may bitterly blame and criticize me on my instinct as a beast. I don't feel shameful on this concern, because I know there are many cases of great men in the world have been doing the same way as I am doing. The happening and avenging of the September 11 disaster can prove what I say. In other words, human beings themselves possess the character traits of beast, human and fairy. Bin ladin is deemed as a hero (good guy) in the Arabian countries, but a beast in the rest of the world. Mr George Bush a good president (good guy) in the States and some countries in the world, but a beast (villain) in some Arabian countries and elsewhere in the world.
